

About the College

Doodhsakhar Mahavidyalaya, Bidri was established in the year 1990 by shri Doodhsakhar Shikshan Prasarak mandal, Bidri with Arts and Science faculty. The college is situated in the hilly and rural area and in the centre of four talukas of Kolhapur district. Started with about 100 student and it is grown about 1300 students out of which 60% of the students are girls. Most of the students are first learners and belong to farmer family.

College has received permanent affiliation and is enlisted in UGC's list of 2(f) and 12B clause in the year 2006. Then received about more than two Crores of grants under various schemes of UGC.

The college has picturesque campus spread over 11 acres of land at the footage of the hill and building is around 3500 square meter with lecture halls, office, full-fledged laboratories equipped with ICT's.

More than 90 percent staff acquired highest academic qualification that is Ph.D. degree. Many of the staff are on academic bodies of Universities and engaged in socio cultural activities in the area. More than 50 percent staffs are P.G. recognized and involved in guiding the students. The NSS unit of college is recognized and honored by university's best unit award.

In the year 2014 our college has been reaccredited by NAAC Bangalore with 'B' Grade (2.64 CGPA).

Objectives of the Workshop
